Things to talk about at home...

-  Who is in your family? Talk to adults at home and ask them about their families when they were growing up. What are the similarities and differences?
-  Talk about how your family might have changed over the years. Have you had any new siblings, or have you had any new pets? Did you find the changes easy or hard to deal with?
-  When the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge came out of hospital, there were hundreds of photographers taking pictures, how do you think this might have felt and do you think this is fair?
