A weekly note from the headteacher...

I can't believe we are already in February! Only one week left of the first half term and our building work then starts on our roof in school. We are hoping to have a minimal amount of disruption. The definite highlight of my week this week was having the pleasure of teaching Byland on Tuesday afternoon. What a hard working and polite class they are. I thoroughly enjoyed hearing about how they had found evidence that a dinosaur had visited their classroom that morning! Some children shared their writing with me and showed off their editing skills. I have also enjoyed my regular visits to Fountain where they were making their own Lego bricks when learning about melting in Science and I have been working with some children in Rievaulx in Maths. Keep up the hard work and have an enjoyable weekend.

There was an exciting visitor for Byland Class this week! Dino the dinosaur (a mrsdayosaurus) came in to answer some questions which the children had prepared. The children also told him off for making a mess in their outdoor area!

World Book Day Bringing Books to Life Wednesday 21st February

To celebrate World Book Day this year we have arranged for the children to take part in a dance workshop where they will work with a choreographer to re-enact a popular story through music, movement and dance.
