A fortnightly note from your headteacher...

Another busy and final Autumn term fortnight at Sessay, most certainly getting into the Christmas spirit! Firstly, a big thank you to all for your support at this year's Christmas Fair, lots of Christmas fun was had by all. We raised over £800, a fantastic achievement, well done everyone.

Last Wednesday was the fabulous Byland's Christmas Play 'Hey Ewe!' Sessay's local 'Tuesday Club' members enjoyed the dress rehearsal with the rest of the school and it was most definitely evident that we certainly have some confident young actors and actresses. Many thanks to Mrs Bennison and the Byland staff for all their continued hard work.

It has been lovely to see Years 2 and 3 Geography and Art work. The class have certainly enjoyed their Islands topic, studying the Isles of Struay, Coll and the famous Katie Morag texts. The children were particularly proud of their models and map work. Fountains also thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Harlow Carr last week to support their Sculpture work in class.
